Comments.—The author of the communication to the Advertiser's Journal on the death of the late Wm. Meade Eaton has fallen into an error in stating that he was the nephew of Bishop Meade, of Virginia—there is no relationship between the families. Bishop Meade, whilst Rector of the church at Winchester, Va., was the Father of the family, and an adopted friend.

The Eaton and Mrs. Eaton again appear this evening in three pieces with their infidelities tried to please the public. They are the White Horns of the Pupper, Their Married, and the Good-for-Nothing—an excellent variety. We are glad to see the audience interested in the company in the person of Miss Schenck, who made her debut a Ko-Ko in the Happy Mat. She is a fair-weather girl, full of fun, and a pleasant, pleasant person, and even required for a review of ordinary grade. We will soon be come a favorite.

The General Council were in session last evening, in the Council, Masons, Barlow and Weatherford, comprising the majority of the Select Committee upon the tobacco question, made their report, concluding that the tobacco recently sent, containing 100 lbs. of tobacco, had a mummy report. After much discussion the minority report was adopted by the following vote:

Yea—White, Krack, Caswell, Kendall, Werner, Armstrong, Shadell, Gilling—6.

Nay—Hicks, Cole, Lyman, Flindall, Barbee, Hart, Hedges, Tamm, Tamm, Tamm.

Mr. Armstrong having voted in the affirmative for the purpose of moving a reconsideration, the vote upon his motion was reconsidered, and the adjournment of the committee was voted.

At a meeting of the Local Officers to the General Council to be held to-day, the minority report was adopted by the following vote:

Yea—White, Krack, Caswell, Kendall, Werner, Armstrong, Shadell, Gilling—6.

Nay—Hicks, Cole, Lyman, Flindall, Barbee, Hart, Hedges, Tamm, Tamm, Tamm.

Mr. Armstrong having voted in the affirmative for the purpose of moving a reconsideration, the vote upon his motion was reconsidered, and the adjournment of the committee was voted.

Mr. Shadell, one of the members from the Second Ward, is absent from the State.
